MUSICAL LEADERSHIP

Kutandara Center. Musical director and co-founder. 1999 - present.

The Kutandara Center provides multicultural experiences for youth and adults. In Kutandara Center programs, students and performers of all ages and abilities explore music from other cultures, embrace their own musical creativity, and continue developing their musicianship skills.

Kutandara. Musical director and founder. 1999 - present.

Kutandara highlights African and Western musical influences. The ensemble includes marimbas, mbira, horns, bass, vocals and drums, and presents McIntosh original compositions and arrangements.

Shamwari, Tamba! and Vana Vedu Youth Ensembles. Musical director and co-founder. 2000 - present.

Shamwari, Tamba! and Vana Vedu perform McIntosh arrangements of Zimbabwean-style music on mbira, marimba, and drum set. Current members are boys and girls ages 9 - 18 who attend public schools throughout Boulder County.

Modern Music Festival. World Music Concert Director. 2001.

An event designed to jointly showcase local and international African musicians and to provide and opportunity for the public to experience the interconnectedness of traditional and popular African musical styles.

"RhythmWalk Zimbabwe" Film, Performer. 2005.

Appeared as a main musical figure and leader in the 2005 documentary film of Zimbabwean music in the US.

Dushanbe Cybercafe Benefit Concert. Co-Artistic Director. 2007.

An event designed to raise money and awareness of Boulder's Sister City in Tajikistan through a collaborative musical venture with three of Boulder's most respected ensembles. Held at Macky Auditorium.
